

Simply put, money should never stand in the way of a child's connection to music and nature. Camp Sparrow Song offers partial and full scholarships to families who wish to attend but cannot afford the full participation fee. Although we will make every attempt to offer aid as needed, all scholarships are subject to availability.

To apply for summer camp financial aid, complete this application by April 1st.